NARRATIVE:

Kevin has an adult criminal history that began at the age of 27 and includes convictions for receiving stolen property, use / under the influence of controlled substance, suspended license, grand theft person, contempt of court, multiple petty theft with prior and multiple DUI. Kevin has served multiple state prison terms, the longest a five (5) year term for grand theft person. Kevin was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 28, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2013 after Kevin absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Kevin qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for receiving stolen property is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
